CUPE Convention & Local Meeting Dates for 2017

CUPE National Convention 2017

CUPE National Convention will take place October 2 to October 6, 2017 in Toronto.

CUPE represents over 639 000 members in many different sectors across Canada. National Convention takes place every 2 years, allowing members input the strategic directions of our national union. Each local has the right to send voting delegates to this convention. There are a variety of other caucuses, workshops and social activities that occur outside of convention hours as well as many supports available to assist delegates in attending, including onsite y & child care and assistance for persons with disabilities. The local will cover the costs for delegates flight release, expenses and hotel, if necessary. If you are interested in attending, look out for details to be released by the Tabulating Committee on nomination and election procedures for delegates. (Air Canada Component By Laws, Section 12 / Appendix C)

The delegates you elect will vote in elections for National Executive Board positions and on policy, procedural and constitutional resolutions which have been proposed by locals. Our Local will be holding a meeting on Thursday, June 22, 2017 to discuss and vote on resolutions that our local can send to to Conver These resolutions must be submitted to National by July 4, 2017.
